MODERN

BOOK

A bird's eye view

In her new book Mountain House published by Clarkson Potter, Nina Freudenberger presents a panorama of the world's most beautiful mountain houses, challenging the traditional imagery of rustic chalets. She shows how these interiors, beautifully photographed by Chris Mottalini, reflect their surroundings.

MODERN CRAFT

Did you say storage?

Designed to show off the little things that make up our daily lives and sure to catch the eye, "Units" is a stoneware storage solution made by Montreal-based Turkish ceramic artist Zeynep Boyan.

TEXTILE

Poetic bedding

For textile atelier Studio Ford's sixth collection, Californian designer Josie Ford looked to the Indian city of Varanasi on the banks of the Ganges to inspire new shapes and colours. Designed in situ, "Anthology" is a line of quilts whose delicate lines compose a timeless and sensual poem.
